

Dear Marissa Barone,

YOUTH ART MONTH

The Google Form for label information is closing tonight. If you have not uploaded your information, please do so before the end of business day so Victor can format and print all the labels. He will be hanging the show this Wednesday with some student support. If you want to review what you sent, it is paste at the end of this email. I organized it by school to hopefully aid in you finding your information. I know that will men those of you who teach at multiple school will have to seek out all of your listings. Apologies. We actually ended up with 75 works. Thank you. Find more information on Youth Art Month or download Governor Bullock's letter of support please visit us the YAM page on the MAEA website.

MAEA WINTER RETREAT

We also ended up postponing our winter retreat due to the extreme weather. We are now meeting in Fort Benton on March 28th – 30th (God willing). Thursday night is optional with the workshop-taking place on Friday and Saturday. Cathryn Reitler is still our guest artist. We have re-opened registration; it is at the bottom of the page. Participants will receive PIR credit have an option to can earn Western if you are looking to move across the pay scale.

Make it a great day,

Mrs. Cortni Harant
