LT. GOVERNOR

March 1, 2021

Dear Montanans:

I am pleased to recognize March 2021 as the 6th annual “Youth Art Month” (YAM) in the state of Montana. From our snow-capped mountains to our endless prairies, Montana is an awe-inspiring place of tremendous beauty. For generations, the Treasure State has stirred the creativity of artists – young and old – who have helped shape Montana’s vibrant culture.

To continue this tradition, Youth Art Month was designed to help support school art programs and promote art material safety for Montana students. To celebrate Youth Art Month this year, the Montana Art Education Association will host a virtual exhibit to showcase the artwork of our talented Montana students.

I encourage all Montanans to check out the showcase from the comfort of their own homes at <http://www.maeamt.org/youth-art-month.html>. With our support, our young artists can continue to create and contribute to Montana’s treasured culture.

Sincerely,
